

PCC Floor Consultants offer onsite inspections and recommendations, in regards to floor construction practices and concrete performance.

OUR ONSITE SERVICES OFFER THE BELOW:

- Observe the placing and finishing practices of concrete and advise the contractor of any modification or refinement to techniques that may benefit the construction process.
- Review the suitability of the concrete supply for slump control, workability, bleeding, setting rates and coordinate any modifications with the concrete supplier.

